26 October 2017: ASX Company Announcements Platform

FirstWave announces the appointment of Neil Pollock as Chief Operating Officer and Head of International

Highlights:

- Experienced telecommunications executive with solid technology-sector experience
- Mr. Pollock's background spans blue chip technology companies including Singtel Optus and Nextra Data Ltd
- Execute FirstWave's international expansion strategy

Leading Australian Cloud Security technology company, FirstWave Cloud Technology Limited (ASX:FCT) ("FirstWave", "the company") is pleased to advise of the appointment of Mr. Neil Pollock as Chief Operating Officer and Head of International, effective December 1, 2017.

The appointment comes quickly after FirstWave's successful $4.35 million capital raise that provided important funding to execute the next stage of FirstWave's international growth strategy.

Neil has over 20 years of industry experience along with enterprise services insight. He served as the Head of Integrated Managed Services at Bharti Airtel Limited (India) and as Head of Strategy & Productivity at Singtel Optus (Australia) where he led the business transformation and was responsible for business which included information and communications technology for enterprise and government customers.

Mr. Pollock was the Chief Executive Officer of Nextra Data Ltd (India) where he was responsible for developing Nextra's capacity and capability to build scale and develop products to meet customer requirements. This included all business customer segments, both domestic and international, as well as service provider partners, direct sales and channels. His additional responsibilities included strategy and business development, marketing and product management, sales and distribution, and customer service and experience.

Mr. Pollock will execute FirstWave's international expansion strategy, including the development of new go-to-market channels and commercial models. He will recruit and manage both domestic and international resources to achieve domestic and international expansion ambitions.

FirstWave Chairman Drew Kelton said:

"We are really excited to have Neil on the team. His extensive international telecommunications and technology experience provides the platform to execute our international expansion strategy, and position the company for growth."
