24 March 2020

To all FirstWave Employees

Dear Team,

As I write this, the world is bracing itself against a global health crisis. FirstWave is closely monitoring how COVID-19 is affecting our community and family across the globe.

As a company, we are making every effort to support and comply with the decisions of health officials and government leaders to help contain the virus. As individuals we hope you are doing the same.

In these challenging times, I would like to share our heartfelt support and solidarity with you and your families. At FirstWave, the health and safety of our colleagues, customers, partners and the communities in which we operate is our number one priority. We have a 12+ year legacy of responsible business and we are committed to doing all we can to keep everyone safe.

As always, we encourage everyone to remain calm but stay vigilant and take all the proper precautions. It is also important to remember to make sure to get your information from reputable sources such as the (WHO) website and consider all facts before taking any response during this time.

We will continue to provide updates as necessary and, as always, we are here to offer all of our employees, partners and industry colleagues our support and assistance as needed.

Yours sincerely,

John Grant
