19 July 2018: ASX Company Announcements Platform

FirstWave signs agreement with Cisco

Highlights:

- FirstWave signs a software original equipment manufacturer (OEM) development and license agreement with Cisco Systems, Inc.
- The agreement is aligned to FirstWave's previously announced strategy and accelerates the EXPAND phase globally.
- Pre-sales activity has already commenced.

Leading Australian cloud security technology company, FirstWave Cloud Technology Limited (ASX: FCT) (FirstWave or Company), is pleased to announce it has signed a software OEM development and license agreement with Cisco Systems, Inc. (Cisco).

The agreement offers Cisco global customers FirstWave's unique cloud service orchestration platform for differentiated email, next generation firewall and web security. FirstWave's proprietary platform technology is a "turnkey" solution for global service providers to deliver new enterprise-grade cloud security services to their customers.

As FirstWave enters the EXPAND phase of its previously announced strategy, the agreement provides the platform for FirstWave to significantly accelerate growth globally. Pre-sales activity has already commenced.

FirstWave CEO, David Kirton said, "We appreciate Cisco recognising the competitive advantages of our combined solutions, and we look forward to accelerating our global expansion and coupling innovation with safe and secure business for customers. The agreement reinforces to the market that FirstWave's locally deployed cloud-based cyber security technology platform has global application. We believe it will accelerate the expand phase of our five-year strategic plan."
